Dear Mr Foutsitzis,

Following our fax of 25th February, 2003, the University of Malta Equivalence Information Centre advises that your degree from the Department of Medical Laboratories of the School of Health and Medical Care Professions of the Thessaloniki Technological Educational Institute is comparable to the B.Sc. (Hons) in Medical Laboratory Science awarded by the University of Malta.

This advice is given only for academic purposes, such as access to postgraduate courses at this University. Should recognition be sought for other purposes, please refer to The Head, Malta Qualifications Recognition Information Centre (MQRIC), Ministry of Education, Floriana.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Paul Heywood
University of Malta Equivalence Information Centre
